2017 CSTE Chronic Disease Preconference Workshop
Parity or Disparity? Methods to Analyze, Identify, and Present Surveillance Data for Health Equity
Sunday June 4th, 2017
Boise Centre

9:00 – 9:10  Introduction/Welcome – Nikka Sorrells, Robert Graff, and Renee Calanan

9:10 -10:00  Intro to Health Equity and Health Disparities and Implications for Public Health Surveillance
Sam Byrd – Director, Centro de Comunidad y Justicia

10:00-10:30  BREAK/POSTER SESSION

Ming Qu – Co-Author of Smart Use of State Public Health Data for Health Disparity Assessment

11:45-12:10  State Example of Measuring and Monitoring Health Disparities
Erika Lichter – Maternal and Child Health Epidemiologist, Maine Center for Disease Control and Prevention

12:10-12:30  State Example of Measuring and Monitoring Health Disparities
Renee Calanan – Epidemiologist, CDC/Colorado Department of Public Health and Environment

12:30-2:00  LUNCH (on your own)

2:00-2:30  Engaging the Community to Interpret the Data and Provide Info to Guide Data Presentation
Sam Byrd – Director, Centro de Comunidad y Justicia

2:30-3:00  Data Visualization and Communication of Disparities Data to Avoid Victim Blaming
Robert Graff – Chronic Disease and Environmental Health Epidemiologist, Idaho Department of Health and Welfare

3:00-3:30  BREAK/POSTER SESSION

3:30-4:30  Small Group Exercise (Moderators: Renee Calanan and Khosrow Heidari)

4:30-4:50  Identifying Tools to Assess Health Equity
Jessica Irizarry – Puerto Rico Department of Health

4:50-5:00  Wrap-up – Robert Graff, and Renee Calanan