GUIDELINES FOR Abstract Submission

We are currently planning for all conference sessions to be held in-person; however, we will continue to monitor circumstances and public health recommendations for group gatherings. Information in these guidelines relates to an in-person event. Additional speaker and moderator instructions will be provided at a later date. Proposals for presentations at the 2023 CSTE Annual Conference should be made using the formal online abstract process. The Program Planning Committee will evaluate abstracts based on a number of criteria, including timeliness, relevance, design, clarity, outcomes, and potential impact. All abstracts must be submitted via the online abstract system no later than Thursday, January 5, 2023 by 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time. Proposals that are incomplete, late, or submitted in an inappropriate format will not be considered.

Guidelines for Abstract Submission

General Information

- ◆ Abstracts must represent the work of the authors listed and appropriately referenced.
- ◆ Abstracts are limited to 400 words, not including the title and speaker bio.
- ◆ The use of "all caps" should be limited to acronyms generally accepted in the field and names of organization; the full organization name on first reference.
- ◆ Submit each individual abstract to the appropriate committee. Review the list of committees carefully to determine which one might be most appropriate for your subject area. Abstract topics are available on the CSTE Conference website at csteconference.org.
- ◆ Duplicate abstracts will not be considered.
- ◆ Concluding statements such as "to be completed" should be avoided.
- ◆ All information should be reviewed prior to submission to ensure completeness; abstract revisions are permitted at any time before the abstract submission deadline.
- ◆ Abstracts may not be modified after the submission deadline during the review period. Presenting authors may make minor changes after an abstract is accepted until the invitation response deadline.
- ◆ By submitting an abstract, please make sure you or an alternate presenting author are committing to attend the in-person conference and giving the presentation if the abstract is accepted. All presenting authors are required to register for the conference and pay related fees. CSTE does not provide a travel allowance, honorarium, or reimbursement for attending the conference.
- ◆ There are no restrictions on the number of abstracts you may submit or the number of submissions you may be selected to present. Abstracts submitted to another conference may be submitted to the CSTE Annual Conference for consideration.
- ◆ CSTE membership is not required but encouraged to submit an abstract.
- ◆ Work created in the course and scope of employment by an author is the copyright of the agency should the author leave employment prior to presentation and therefore at the agency's discretion of presentation at the conference.
- ◆ CSTE does not accept abstracts for promotion of services and/or goods. All abstracts should be scientifically based.

Media

CSTE typically issues media passes to appropriate outlets interested in covering the Conference. Credentialed reporters may attend all portions of the event except members-only sessions.

Continuing Education

Continuing education for this activity is pending. See csteconference.org for final announcement and details.

Guidelines for Abstract Submission

Choosing a Presentation Format

While the Program Planning Committee will attempt to honor the submitted format for presentations, this will not always be possible. For Breakout and Poster presentations, an option is available to select consideration for an alternative format if the Program Planning Committee cannot accommodate your preferred format.

BREAKOUT PRESENTATION

NEW SESSION AND PRESENTATION LENGTHS

Findings are presented on a specific topic within a breakout session with the opportunity for audience Q&A. Presentations are all 10 minutes with only one (1) presenting author slot available for the submitted abstract. Some committees may select abstracts for presentations that are less than 10 minutes depending on the outcome of the review process.

POSTER PRESENTATION

A visual illustration on a poster board that summaries finding by way of limited text, graphics, and photographs. Presentations are limited to only one (1) presenting author per submitted abstract. Poster presentations will not have audiovisual equipment available. Some poster presentations may be selected for electronic display within the online agenda and app.

ROUNDTABLE PRESENTATION

Informative presentation focusing on recent findings or innovative topics, with substantial opportunity for discussion among attendees. Presentations are limited to up to two (2) presenting author slots available for the submitted abstract. Abstracts submitted for roundtable presentation will not be considered for other presentation types. Roundtable sessions will not have audiovisual equipment available.

PRESENTATION FORMAT	BREAKOUT	POSTER	ROUNDTABLE
Key attributes	Oral presentation requiring review and discussion	Visual display of graphics, diagrams, and limited text	Discussion-based topic where audience feedback and participation maximized

Guidelines for Abstract Submission

Online Abstract System

Please follow all directions provided in the online abstract system to ensure your abstract is entered correctly. The system divides the submission process into steps so that information can be entered, previewed, and saved at each step. The steps in the submission process are shown as links in the top navigation panel. At any time in the process, you may navigate between steps to make revisions or corrections. By following the directions on each page in the submission process, you will automatically proceed through every step needed to submit an abstract.

Once you have decided on your presentation format, the steps involved are follows and listed under Control Panel in the online abstract submission form:

COMMITTEE AND TOPIC

Abstracts will be divided into committees for review and programming purposes based on topic areas. The Program Planning Committee reserves the right to reassign your abstract within committees.

NEW – The 2023 committee listing below was updated to align with CSTE's revised Steering Committee structure. Learn more at www.cste.org.

AVAILABLE COMMITTEES:

- ◆ Chronic Disease/Maternal and Child Health
- ◆ Environmental Health/ Occupational Health
- ◆ Infectious Disease
- ◆ Special Topics
- ◆ Substance Use and Mental Health/Injury
- ◆ Surveillance/Informatics
- ◆ Workforce Development

TITLE

- ◆ The title is not included in the abstract word count; however, titles should not exceed 185 characters.
- ◆ Title case should be used where the first word and all other major words (nouns, pronouns, verbs, adjectives, adverbs) and some conjunctions are capitalized.
 - Articles such as the, a, an, and, but, for, or and nor should be in lowercase
 - Lowercase the part of a proper name that would be lowercased in text
- ◆ Do not begin paper titles with "The".
- ◆ Do not end title with a period.
- ◆ Use a concise title that summarizes the content of the abstract.
- ◆ Do not use abbreviations, unless they are widely accepted by the field (for example, HIV/AIDS is acceptable in place of Human Immunodeficiency Virus/ Acquired Deficiency Syndrome).

PERMISSIONS and DISCLOSURES: The presenting author must complete all disclosure and permission questions on the submission form.

KEYWORDS: Choose between one and three keywords from the available list that is most relevant to your abstract.

Guidelines for Abstract Submission

Online Abstract System

AUTHOR

- ◆ A presenting author is defined as an individual person who will actually present in-person at the conference.
- ◆ The submitting author is the author that completes the online abstract submission process. This person is usually involved with the abstract as a presenting author or co-author.
- ◆ By submitting an abstract, please make sure you or an alternate presenting author are committing to attend the in-person conference and giving the presentation if the abstract is accepted. All presenting authors are required to register for the conference and pay related fees. CSTE does not provide a travel allowance, honorarium, or reimbursement for presenting authors.
- ◆ Work created in the course and scope of employment by an author is the copyright of the agency should the author leave employment prior to presentation and therefore at the agency's discretion of presentation at the conference.
- ◆ The primary contact for communication should be identified as the first presenting author when other presenting authors are permitted.
- ◆ Presenting author(s) must complete brief bio information on their background experience that should not exceed 100 words. If selected for oral presentation, this information will be utilized by the session moderator to properly introduce you. This information may be shortened by the moderator to ensure presentations stay on time.
 - To assist session moderators in correct pronunciation of presenting author's name, correct pronunciation is required in bio section. Use the sounds like or phonetic spelling like the examples below:
 - Jane Knowles silent K, sounds like "noles"
 - Allie Pyan Pie-n, like Ryan but with a P
 - Lisa Takeuchi Tah-keh-oo-chee
- ◆ Abstracts should include all pertinent presenting author contact information.
- ◆ Co-authors who are not presenting but contributed substantially to the study design, statistical analysis, or interpretation may be listed as a non-presenting author. Up to fifteen (15) co-authors may be included.
- ◆ Formal letters of invitation are sent by email from the CSTE National Office by Friday, March 24, 2023. All authors receive a formal communication regarding the Program Planning Committee's determination. However, only presenting authors have system access to accept or decline an invitation.
- ◆ Due to the volume of submissions not all abstracts are accepted for presentation. Rejection by the review committee may be due to several reasons, including but not limited to number of submissions received, peer review, and/or space constraints. CSTE does not provide peer review comments on abstracts to the authors.
- ◆ It is the responsibility of the first presenting author to communicate with any presenting co-authors prior to the presentation. For breakout presentations, the presenting author is responsible for coordinating the presentation with the moderator selected by the Program Planning Committee in that session.

Update Contact/Employment Information:

If you need to update your contact information, including email address or employer, choose "Select and Edit" on the Author tab. Updating your existing profile will help you keep historical records of all your abstracts in one place!

VIEW OR EDIT SUBMISSIONS

After you complete Step 1 – Committee and Topic selection, you will receive an email from cste@confex.com with the subject line "Submission Initiated" and your abstract title. The email content will include the ID for the abstract. Each abstract submission will have a separate ID. Presenting authors should use the same email address for all submissions and to access your User Portal, where you may be prompted to create a password linked to your email address to access all your submissions in one place. You may view and edit an abstract any time before the abstract submission deadline on Thursday, January 5, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time. Abstracts may not be modified after the submission deadline during committee review. If your abstract is accepted for presentation, minor content changes may be made by contacting nationaloffice@cste.org no later than Friday, April 28, 2023. Author changes may be made online before the abstract submission deadline and after invitation until Friday, April 28, 2023.

REVIEW AND SUBMIT

After you have completed all steps in the process and are ready to submit an abstract for consideration, please carefully proofread your abstract on the final step – "Confirmation". To complete your submission, select "Conclude Submission" on the last step. You must correct all errors or omissions before the abstract can be submitted as final. Once you have completed the abstract, you will receive an email confirmation that the abstract has been received. If you exit the system without completing all steps, your abstract will be considered incomplete. You must receive a confirmation email for your abstract to be considered received.

Guidelines for Abstract Submission

Invitation Response

Formal letters of invitation and regret are sent by email from the CSTE National Office by Friday, March 24, 2023. All authors receive a formal communication that informs them of the Planning Committee's decision. Presenting authors with an accepted abstract will receive a link to their online "Speaker's Corner" where you may view session details, respond to the invitation, and upload your presentation. Co-authors with an accepted abstract will receive a determination email, but not a link to the online Speaker's Corner. The deadline for responding to the invitation to present is 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on Friday, April 28, 2023 using the online link. Presenting authors that fail to respond by the deadline will be considered accepted and expected to present or find a replacement presenting author. Failure to present an accepted abstract could result in disqualification from presenting an abstract at future conferences. If unforeseen circumstances arise after the invitation deadline and a presenting author cannot present, contact nationaloffice@cste.org as soon as possible. All presenting authors are expected to register for the conference and pay related fees.

Withdrawals

Withdrawal of an abstract can be made at any time during submission and review. The deadline to decline presentation or withdraw after invitation acceptance is 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on Friday, April 28, 2023 and should be done utilizing the online abstract system. Withdrawal of a presentation after invitation acceptance or after the deadline should be communicated by email to nationaloffice@cste.org. Withdrawals made after the invitation deadline, failure to present an accepted abstract, or find a replacement presenting author could result in disqualification from presenting an abstract at future conferences. Please also see Invitation Response.

Student Abstracts

Students are encouraged to submit abstracts for sessions offered at the CSTE Annual Conference. To be eligible for consideration, abstracts must be authored by students currently enrolled full time in an undergraduate or graduate program who are actively pursuing a degree in public health or related field. Discounted registration fees are offered to qualified students.

Late Breaker Abstracts

Abstracts containing truly late-breaking research or outbreak or event responses not available at the regular abstract deadline may be submitted as late breakers. During submission, authors are required to justify why their abstract is a late breaker. Abstracts are only considered for presentation during a Breakout Session on Wednesday morning of the conference. Late breaker abstracts are highly competitive as space is limited.

- ◆ The late breaker abstract submission process will open on Friday, March 24, 2023.
- ◆ All late breaker abstracts must be submitted via the abstract submission website by Friday, April 7, 2023 by 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time.
- ◆ Only one presenting author per presentation will be allowed during the late breaker session.
- ◆ Formal letters of invitation for late breaker presentation are sent by email from the CSTE National Office by Friday, April 28, 2023. Late breaker presenting authors will have information communicated separately on their deadline for responding to the invitation.

Presenter Disclosure

Presenting authors must disclose to participants prior to speaking any significant financial interest or other relationships with the manufacturer(s) of any commercial product(s) or provider(s) of any commercial services discussed in a session presentation and with any commercial supports of the activity. This pertains to relationships with pharmaceutical companies, biomedical device manufacturers, or other corporations whose products or services are related to the subject matter of the presentation topic. Having an interest or affiliation with a corporate organization does not prevent a speaker from making a presentation, but the relationship must be made known in advance to the audience. Questions regarding CSTE presenter disclosure should be directed to the CSTE National Office.

Guidelines for Abstract Submission

Presidential Priorities AWARD

Each year, the President of CSTE sets forth a list of Presidential Priorities. These are key areas impacting the field of applied epidemiology that the organization, Executive Director, and Executive Board works to advance during the year. Presidential Priorities change from year to year based on the current CSTE President. The 2022-2023 CSTE President is Angela Dunn, MD, MPH, Executive Director, Salt Lake City County, Utah.
